About the course
This programme is designed to develop the skills and knowledge required by the strategist to steer an organisation through the difficult and turbulent 21st century environment. It will enable you to develop and implement an effective strategic business programme.

It provides a progressive and structured framework for you to develop and apply skills of critical and ethical evaluation and synthesis.

How you'll learn
Each module is taught via a four day intensive study period. Supplementary materials will be made available for you to study prior to the delivery.

You'll be assessed through both individual work based assignments and formal examinations.

Why choose this course?
- It’s developed in association with industry and commerce ensuring relevance and currency.
- It develops a wide range of knowledge and transferable skills by offering a stimulating experience from both practitioner and intellectual perspectives, in a friendly and supportive environment.
- Our tutors have a wide range of practical managerial experience in both public and private sectors.

“"The programme was intellectually challenging and provided me with a strategic perspective on my organisation with a focus on business turnaround and exceptional performance."

Mothusi Tladi — 2011 Class President
